

☞ A trade book of your choice related to your content area and a reference book to go with it that is related to the content of the tradebook.

Some “off-the-top-of-my-head” suggestions:

History

(American Revolution):	Sarah Bishop; My Brother Sam is Dead; Johnny Tremain; Mr. Revere and I; Landmark Books: The American Revolution; The American Revolution from A to Z
(Colonial America):	Young American: Colonial Williamsburg
(Civil War):	Bull Run
(Gold Rush):	Stampede for Gold: The story of the Klondike Rush;
(Underground Railroad):	House of Dies Drear
(World War I):	Good night, Mr. Tom
(Native American):	Thunder Rolling in the Mountain; Anpao: An American Indian Odyssey; Ishi, Last of His Tribe; Soft Rain: A story of the Cherokee Trail of Tears
(Holocaust):	Night
(Medieval):	Catherine Called Birdy; The Midwife's Apprentice; Good Master! Sweet Lady! Voices from a Medieval Village

Science

(Ecology):	Whalesinger
(Environment):	Dove; The Talking Earth; Julie of the Wolves
(Thermodynamics):	Rocket Boys: A memoir
(Epidemics):	Fever, 1793

Social Studies

(Homelessness):	Onion John
(Orphan)	Lottery Rose
(Heritage):	A Girl Called Boy; House on Mango Street; And Now Miguel; A Summer Life; Drita, My Homegirl; Extra Credit; Ziggy and the Black Dinosaurs series
(Social Issues):	Scorpions; The Girl Who Owned a City

Math

(Proportions):	The Borrowers
(Mathematical Principles):	The Number Devil: A Mathematical Adventure; The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Nighttime; Do the Math: Secrets, Lies, and Algebra; Math Doesn't Suck
(Entrepreneurial):	Lawn Boy; Lunch Money

English

(Grammar):	Eats, Shoots, and Leaves; My Grammar and I (or should that be me?)
(Writer's Craft):	On Writing
(Love of Reading):	Ex Libris: Confessions of a Common Reader; The Child that Books Built: A Life in Reading; How Reading Changed My Life
Dance	Alphas
Theatre	Acting for Young Actors
Music	Beethoven Lives Upstairs
Language	Le mystère de la tour Eiffel; Historia de Mexico; The Legend of Mu Lan: A heroine of ancient China